Yes, we have slaved over each page, each picture, each work, but it is worth it. Years from today as you look through the pages, memory of old scenes, old friends, and school days will come to life and you will be a carefree student once again. Visions of the Prom, the Hoo-Doo, basketball games, the band, and club activities will dance before your eyes. We hope you enjoy our book, and your book, not only now, but in the years to come.

C-A-R-L-Y-L-E! Carlyle! Carlyle! Yea! Team! Perhaps the main reason why our basketball team has won more than their share of the games is due to the fine support that the PEP CLUB has given them. The Club has 49 members, many of whom attend most of the games.

FRESHMEN CLASS

For a while we were strangers in a strange land, but soon we got to know our schedules, our way around the building and to know our teachers and our classmates. We rather startled the student body by having one of our number, John Gray, win the portable radio which was awarded to the highest magazine salesman in the magazine drive. That started us off with a bang! We had lots of fun during our initiation—bowing to the juniors and seniors and feeding them candy! How glad we (the boys) were to get those scarfs off our heads! Remember how the seniors and juniors bowed to each one of us in the Gym.? Bet they were stiff for a few days!

Joyce Kleber, our candidate for Hoo-Doo Queen, was First Maid of Honor. We are represented by the following class officers: president, Leslie Joe Enloe; vice-president, Kay Delahunt; secretary, Martha Littell; treasurer, Lois Harriss, Kay Delahunt, Joyce Kleber and Lois Harriss are our cheer leaders. In basketball, John Gray, Clayton Mitchell, Delmar Young, James Crabtree, and Frederick Stilt are our representatives. On the Student Council are Lois Harriss and Warren Dempsey. To guide and advise us, we selected Mrs. Boyd and Mr. Fee.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

This year of school is one of great importance to the senior class. Not only do we hope to graduate, but there's the ordering of name cards, class rings, having pictures taken, putting out of the Yearbook, the senior play, class day, and of course, learning all we can before we leave in May.

Our is a class full of talent. There's Doris Davis who won a medal in the International Artistic Typing Contest—three of our girls have been queens—Phyllis Essington, Hoo-Doo Queen during her Junior Year, Ruth Langham, Hoo-Doo Queen this year, and Wanda Crabtree, Dairy Queen and Peach Queen of Southern Illinois. In athletics we shine with Jack Harter, Wilson Fauke, Charles Hoffman, Eugene Koehler and David Steinmann. We have as cheerleaders, Phyllis Essington and Anna Lu Meyer. In Gymnastics there's Dean Gambill, Dean Lindsey, Phyllis Essington and Anna Lu Meyer. The senior class is really musical. Wanda Crabtree, Anna Lu Meyer, Allen Weihe and LeRoy Friedrichsmeyer are our excellent musicians.

Stanley Parson is the editor of the Kaskaskian as well as our class president. Other class officers are: LeRoy Friedrichsmeyer, vice-president; Eliza Swofford, secretary; Joyce Hoffman, treasurer. On the Student Council we are represented by Dale Maibaum, Nancy Langham and Joyce Hoffmann. Our class advisors are Miss Dieckmann and Mr. Vollertsen.
